Sir,

I am directed to say that in accordance with the practice in vogue in India in order to remove doubts which have been expressed as to the designation which candidates are entitled to use who have duly qualified as Instructors from the Government of India Civil Defence Schools the Government of India have decided that all those who have obtained a Class I (Distinguished), a Class I or Class II Certificate (or their equivalent in the Specialist Courses) at any of the Civil Defence Instructors' or Specialist schools may, as long as they are employed on Civil Defence duties, style themselves as "Civil Defence Instructor India" or "C.D.I.I." for short.

2. The Government of India suggest that Instructors who have duly qualified as a Class III Instructor, or as a Specialist Instructor in a Provincial Government School, should be allowed similarly to style themselves "Civil Defence Instructor Local" or "C.D.I.L." for short.

3. Officers who have passed through the A.R.F. Staff School, Calcutta or the Civil Defence Staff College, Lahore before 13th June, 1943, or who have obtained a Class I or a Class II Certificate at the Civil Defence

Staff..

Staff College, Lahore or at the Officers' Course at the Civil Defence Training College, Hyderabad (D.C.T.C.) similarly style themselves "Civil Defence Staff College" or "C.D.S.C." for short.

4. Officers who have passed through the Civil Defence Industrial School, Calcutta may similarly style themselves "Civil Defence Industrial School" or C.D.I.S." for short. This designation will also apply to officers who attended the Industrial Courses at the Staff School, Calcutta.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Sd/- N.A. Gopalaswami,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.
